Kyokushin World Championship

Bulletin no 1.

Introduction

November 17 and 18 the Dutch Kyokushin Organization (NKKO), in collaboration with the Kyokushin World Federation organizes the WC Kyokushin in the city of Arnhem, Holland. Participation in the championship is only possible for country teams affiliated and/or cooperating with the KWU and or the Shinkyokushin.

This event will be held at SportsCenter Valkenhuizen in Arnhem.

Arnhem is a city in the east of Holland and located on the banks of the Rhine River and surrounded by beautiful forests and parks, such as the Sonsbeek Park and the Veluwe National Park.

Arnhem is also known because of The Battle of Arnhem. This was a major World War II battle fought in and around the city in September 1944. It was a key battle in Operation Market Garden, which was intended to end the war before Christmas 1944. The battle had a significant impact on the city and is remembered through various monuments, museums, and events.

Arnhem has a rich cultural and historical heritage. The city has many museums, such as the Netherlands Open Air Museum, the Airborne Museum, and the Museum Arnhem, which showcase the city's history and art.

From Schiphol Airport (Amsterdam) you can travel to Arnhem directly by train. This is a one-hour travel by train and a direct connection.
